

WHY INTEGRATED PEAK SOLUTIONS?

Integrated Peak Solutions is a growing employee development company that provides training and consulting services to customers and community organizations in San Antonio and the surrounding area. Integrated Peak Solutions' programs range from basic employee development to executive leadership coaching. IPS is building a rich history of improving the organizations it services through its efforts to ensure anyone who comes in contact with them sustains a positive development experience.

Gary L. Arnold, president of Integrated Peak Solutions, holds a Master's Degree in Human Resource Management and has over 25 years leadership and training experience in military and business positions.

Satisfied clients:

Teamwork is important to every organization. In our world, it's vital that our volunteers and employees form a seamless, responsive, caring team as they assist our communities. Gary Arnold understands responsive; he understands caring; and he demonstrates these attributes every time he works with our class participants. The details of how we work with each other are the most important in completing our mission; Gary excels in making that clear, understandable, and useful in every session he presents. We're fortunate to have him as a member of our team.

Michael G. Himoff, CEO/Owner, V.I.P. Staffing

Gary Arnold was given the task of teaching our company how to communicate within a team structure, dealing with constructive criticism, and accountability regardless of position. While doing this he helped us raise the bar, yet at the same time keep stress levels low. Gary is an individual with a very high level of professionalism, integrity and understanding of how to complete a task.
